January Highlights

January 1st: Spud State Cares Is Closed

January 14th: We will meet at Jeremy's Downtown Arcade at 12:00pm for some gaming fun! Jeremy's has lots of great games like pinball, racing games, fighting games, dancing games, and even classics like Mrs. Pacman! We will be paying for our participants with special needs to get in. Staff get in for free if they are not playing. They have vending machine food and drinks, but you can bring outside food to the arcade. There is space to sit.

January 20th: Spud State Cares Is Closed

January 23rd: Movie, PJs and Popcorn Day! The January featured film is Despicable Me 4! Join us for some Minion madness. PJs are encouraged but not required to participate.

January 28th: It's National Lego Day! Which means we need a contest. Come with some great ideas about what you can build with Legos and possibly leave with a prize. We'll be building starting at 11:30am. We will be announcing the winners of the contest Thursday at our Show and Tell.

January 30th: Show and Tell is today at 11:30am. Bring a treasured item to share with the group. Tell us why this item is special or important to you. It's a great way to get to know each other a little better!

Winter Camp is coming! We will be traveling to Camp Pinewood in McCall for snowy winter fun from February 25th at 1pm until February 27th at 11am! There will be tubing, swimming at Zim's Hot Springs, exploring McCall, a talent show, and all kinds of indoor and outdoor fun! The camp costs $140 for participants. We do require every participant to have a caregiver with them, so we are covering the cost for the caregivers. To guarantee a spot at camp, you must turn in a registration form, a release form, and the $140 by February 1st. Caregivers also need to turn in a registration form and release form. Each camper is responsible for arranging their own transportation to and from camp. We are looking for some volunteers to come along to help with activities. Email Ellen at spudstatecares@gmail.com if you are interested in joining us.
